SLIGHT IMPROVEMENT IN INFLUENZA SITUATION.

There has been a very slight improvement in the influenza situation here, and, in the opinion of the physicians and the members of the Board of Health the crest has about been reached. Mrs. Harriet Minaker, Visiting Nurse for the Bourbon County Health and Welfare League, reports a total of two hundred cases here. A large part of these are of a mild nature. Fewer families are newly affected, although there was for a while a slight increase in the number of cases reported from families already ill. It is thought with better weather conditions and a more willing spirit on the part of the public to help carry out the regulations of the Board of Health the disease will gradually diminish.

There are yet a number of serious cases, but according to the Health Board officials there is no cause for alarm. Several cases have developed into pneumonia and double pneumonia. Dr. Charles G. Daugherty and the members of the Health Board are in active touch with the situation. Dr. Daugherty will bring to the attention of the Board of Health the matter of guarding the approaches to the cemetery at the hour of funerals, so as to limit those in attendance to the immediate relatives of the family. People are requested to keep away from the cemeteries during the hour of funerals, and unless the order is complied with steps will be taken to prevent their admittance to the grounds.

The physicians of the city are greatly overworked. One of them stated that he had only had four hours sleep in twenty-four on one occasion. They request the public to cease making telephone inquiries of them about sick friends and relatives, as their time is too fully occupied caring for the sick.

On account of the increased number of patients at the Massie Memorial Hospital, Miss Boehme, Superintendent, secured the loan of a large supply of cots and bedding from Camp Buell, which were delivered to the institution by three big U. S. army trucks. There is a wonderful lack of nurses to care for the sick, not only at the Hospital, but in private homes, and volunteers are urged to make their names known.

The ban against churches, theatres and gatherings of all kinds imposed by the State Board of Health by reason of the epidemic of influenza will continue indefinitely, the Board at a meeting in Louisville Wednesday having so decided following a session that lasted several hours.

Another meeting of the board will be held in Louisville next Wednesday, when the situation again will be reviewed. If by that time the situation is materially improved it is probable that a definite date for lifting restrictions will be named.

At the meeting Wednesday the clergy generally took the position that opening the churches would improve the morale and resistance of the church-going public, but the Health Board turned a deaf ear to this argument.

Following the conference it was intimated by various members of the Board that open air meetings at least may be permitted following the meeting next Wednesday.

Sheriff W. G. McClintock received a letter Wednesday from Circuit Judge R. L. Stout, advising him that, in all probability, there would be no term of the November court, unless the influenza situation had cleared up sufficiently to permit it. Judge Stout stated that he did not want the impression to get out there would be no term of court at all, and that all witnesses and litigants should hold themselves ready to respond when notified. The holding of this term of Court will depend on what action is taken by the Board of Health and whether or not the influenza ban is lifted in a short time.

Due notice will be given to all parties concerned as to the time of calling the sessions of the Court.

PREPARING TO BUY THE SENATORSHIP.

Secretary Cummins, acting chairman of the Democratic National Committee, is authority for the statement that when the National Republican chairman was in Kentucky he proposed to put up for the campaign $2 for every one that the party in the State subscribed, and A. T. Hert pledged another $1. The Kentucky Republicans decided to raise $40,000. If these pledges are fulfilled it will be seen that they are prepared to spend $160,000 to elect Bruner, who would be high at a hundredth of the amount. The effort to make money talk indicates how strong is the Republican desire to get control of the Senate and tie the President's hands. The bare announcement that they are prepared to buy what they can have no hope of obtaining in any other way ought to and will put every Democrat on his mettle to elect Gov. Stanley and the Congressional nominees at all hazards. Go to the polls, stamp under the rooster and repel the foul insinuation that the office is for sale.

OCTOBER DEPARTS IN AN ANGRY MOOD.

The month of October, usually one of the finest in the year, made its exit yesterday in rather an angry mood. Heavy rains, darkening skies, and at noon a fall of hail, all contributed to the poet old Mother Nature assumed in her gruffest against humanity, as if the war and influenza were not enough!

CUT FLOWERS.

Choice cut flowers in bunches or designs for funerals, weddings, social events, the sick or any purpose where flowers may be used. Prompt attention given all orders whether large or small.

JO. VARDEN,
(22-4f) Florist Agent.

FUEL ADMINISTRATOR SAYS THERE WILL BE NO COAL FAMINE.

There will be no coal famine the coming winter, nor even an approach to the hardships of last winter, Fuel Administrator Garfield has announced, but the public must continue to co-operate with the fuel administration in conservation measures as far more coal is needed now than in normal times.

Dr. Garfield, in a statement reviewing the present coal outlook, said the nation's fuel supplies, assembled in preparation for an unusually severe winter, are adequate and well distributed; that the coal stocks on hand are greater than ever before and that more domestic coal is now in the hands of consumers and dealers than at the corresponding period in normal years.

COAL HEATERS—FUEL SAVERS. NOW'S THE TIME TO BUY.

For the best coal heater, get the Hot Blast, it saves fuel and gives more heat. We have a limited supply. Better buy now.

(8-4f) A. F. WHEELER & CO.

NO LET UP IN WAR PLANS BECAUSE OF PEACE TALK.

The War Department does not plan to call all men within the draft up to 45 years by January 1, Secretary Baker said in discussing press dispatches crediting John R. Mott, international secretary of the Y. M. C. A., with saying that he had been so informed by Mr. Baker.

Secretary Baker said war work is not being slowed up because of the peace discussions. The only delay, he said and it has been only in spots, is due to the epidemic of Spanish influenza. This, he added, was entirely temporary, and is being overcome rapidly.

BANDITS SLAY POLICEMAN—ACCOMPLICE ARRESTED HERE

Paris staged one scene of a tragedy which had its beginning in Lexington, Wednesday night, when one of the bandits who held up a groceryman and murdered a Lexington policeman, was arrested and brought to the Paris jail.

Patrolman Preston Pullen, aged sixty, a member of the Lexington police force was shot and killed shortly past seven o'clock Wednesday night at the corner of High and Broadway in Lexington, by one of two men who had just held up the grocery of S. A. Glass, at the corner of Cedar and Upper streets. One of the men, who gave his name as Henry Murphy, aged twenty-six, residence Cincinnati, was arrested by the Lexington police, after he had been wounded in the calf of the leg by a shot fired by Tom McCormick, a clerk in the Glass grocery. His companion, who gave the name of Porter Annett, was arrested on the 8:15 car from Lexington, at the Interurban station in Paris. The men entered the Glass grocery and at the point of revolvers, held up the place and robbed the cash register of $30.

After the arrest of Murphy the scene shifted to Paris. Chief of Police Fred Link had been notified by telephone message of the shooting. Securing an automobile, he, accompanied by Patrolman Lusk, went to a point on the interurban line about five miles from Paris, and boarded the car, arriving in Paris at 8:15, sending the machine back to Paris. A description of the man wanted had been furnished the officers. They spied Annett crouched down in a seat and kept him under surveillance until the car reached the interurban station at Fifth and High streets, when they placed him under arrest. He was taken to the Paris jail, where, after a course of questioning, he admitted being with Murphy, but denied that he had anything to do with the shooting. Upon being searched a revolver with two empty chambers was found. He also had a registration card bearing the name of Henry Murphy. It afterward developed that he and Murphy had switched cards. As soon as he was informed that Murphy had been arrested he admitted that he was Murphy and that the man arrested in Lexington was in reality Annett. Both men registered in the first draft in 1917 from the Indiana Reformatory at Jeffersonville, Ind. The Lexington police were informed of the arrest. Chief of Police Ragan, Capt. Austin Price and Capt. Donlin, of the Lexington force, came to Paris in an auto and took the man back to Lexington.

BOURBON DEMOCRATS CONFIDENT AND OPTIMISTIC.

Optimism is the prevailing feature of the Democratic campaign in this city and county, with County Chairman Will G. McClintock making the prophecy that Bourbon will roll up a handsome old-time majority for the Senatorial and Congressional candidates at the election Tuesday. Chairman McClintock estimates conservatively a majority ranging from 400 to 500 in the county for the Democratic ticket.

A force of clerks have been busy at headquarters mailing to all the Democratic voters in the city and county communications urging them to be sure to go to the polls on Tuesday and back up President Wilson with their votes. The envelopes also carried a copy of President Wilson's appeal to the nation to stand by his administration and keep behind him a Democratic Congress. About 3,000 of these letters were folded, placed in envelopes, addressed and mailed Wednesday.

Chairman McClintock, in a statement given out to the press, said: "The apathy that has prevailed among the voters, largely due to the influenza situation and the fact that the farmers are busy with their tobacco and corn crops has given way to a livelier feeling, and the stirring appeal of President Wilson has certainly warmed them up to a realization of their duty. The prospect certainly looks good for the success of the ticket in the city and county, and you know old Bourbon never does anything half-way at all, at any time."

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

White House, Washington, September 19, 1918.
"The Hon. J. C. W. Beckham, Washington, D. C.
"I understand you are leaving to-day to join Gov. Stanley in opening his campaign in Kentucky. May I not say that my cordial wishes go with you?
"It is of the utmost consequence that the administration should have direct and unfading assistance of its real friends at this time, and I wish you God speed.
"Cordially and sincerely yours,
"WOODROW WILSON."

ADMINISTRATOR APPOINTED.

In the County Court Judge Batterson appointed Mrs. Amanda Flanders as administrator of the estate of Geo. C. Flanders, who died near North Middletown, recently. Mrs. Flanders qualified by furnishing the required bond. C. H. Dalzell, Claude M. Thomas and Clay Reed were appointed to appraise the estate.

IN THE SERVICE OF THEIR COUNTRY.

Corporal Edward Lee and Mrs. Lee, who have been visiting Paris relatives for several days, left Tuesday for Camp Knox, where Corp. Lee is now stationed.

Mr. Earl Hume Ferguson, of Georgetown, formerly of Bourbon county, has been accepted by the Y. M. C. A. as an auto truck driver, and will leave for France as soon as he is called.

Draft calls for registrants who have passed their thirty-seventh birthdays, are expected to begin about March 1, according to information given out yesterday from the District Draft Board at Lexington.

Dr. and Mrs. Jas. A. Vansant, of Mt. Sterling, have received a letter from their son, Lieut. Thos. Vansant, stating that he had arrived safely in France. Lieut. Vansant is a nephew of Dr. J. T. Vansant, of Paris.

According to messages received here by relatives of several Bourbon county boys at Camp Meade, Md., the influenza situation there is greatly improved. Private George Glenn, of Paris, who has been ill for sometime with the disease, has fully recovered. Several others who contracted the influenza are on the road to recovery.

Relatives in Paris have received messages from Private Martin S. Glenn, formerly of Paris, stating that he had landed safely overseas, and was now in active service on the battlefield. Mr. Glenn's brother, Mr. George Glenn, of Paris, is also in the service. They are brothers of John and Joe Glenn, of this city.

Mrs. C. P. Bales, of Paris, received a letter from her brother, George Stone, stating that he had been transferred from the Great Lakes Naval Training Station, where he had been in training six months, to a seagoing vessel stationed off the coast of Massachusetts. He said further that he had been promoted from fireman to assistant engineer.

When you write to your soldier overseas, be cheerful above all else. Write as though he were in the next town on a business trip. Tell him how the house and garden look, the small town happenings of cheerful interest, the talk of the neighbors, and who has been the latest one to enlist, in fact, everything that will cheer him. Don't tell him of your troubles—he has plenty of his own. Be cheerful!

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Elder received a letter Wednesday from their son, Thomas Elder, stating that he had arrived safely in France. He stated that all the Bourbon county boys were well. They were stationed a few miles from the battle front from which they could see the flash of the American artillery, which lit up the skies like a Fourth of July celebration. The roar of the big guns could be plainly heard in their camp.

One hundred skilled and unskilled laborers, half of them negroes, this week's recruits in the labor drive of the U. S. Employment Service, left in a special car on the L. & N. railroad from Lexington, Tuesday, for Camp Knox, Stithon, Ky. Recent reports from the government construction work at Camp Knox are that the building and concreting now under way there will in all probability be completed by December. This is due to the hearty response of the laborers of the State, who are volunteering their services in the United States Labor Army at Camp Knox, officials there say.

The Louisville Evening Post prints a half-tone picture of Irwin A. Burton, of Louisville, who is now in France as a member of the Quartermaster's Corps. Burton is the youngest brother of Mr. Frank Burton, of Ahearn & Burton, of Paris. Before enlisting in the army he was employed in the big plant of John P. Morton & Co., in Louisville, where he had charge of the department in which the Louisville & Nashville railroad tariff sheets and other complicated tabulated forms were composed and printed. He was highly regarded by the John P. Morton Co. when he returned from France. Burton is a son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Burton, of Louisville, and has been in France since March.

Pursuant to instructions from the War Department there will be opened on December 1, at Camp Fremont, California, an Infantry Officers' Training School, with a capacity for 20,000 students, for the purpose of turning out Second Lieutenants for the infantry service of the United States army. The duration of the course will be about two months. The eligibility rules are the same as those for the Infantry General Officers' Training Schools, except as modified. All draft registrants between eighteen and forty-six are eligible, except registrants in Class One, who registered prior to September 12 and registrants in deferred classifications on account of industrial occupation or employment, including agriculture. The physical requirements are those for the general military service. Rules for examinations—Dates—Every Monday and

WAR WORK CAMPAIGN GETTING READY FOR BUSINESS

Mr. Henry A. Power, of Paris, District Chairman of the United War Work Campaign presided at a preliminary meeting of the organization for this district, held at the Y. M. C. A. building Tuesday evening. The meeting was held for the purpose of effecting a permanent organization for this county to work in the coming campaign for the week of November 11-18. This county has been allotted the sum of $38,000, as its quota to be raised in the campaign which is to be conducted with Bourbon, Harrison, Nicholas and Fleming counties composing the Thirtieth District.

Rev. J. W. Crates, of Carlisle, who had just returned from the meeting of the national organization at Chicago, addressed the meeting. He brought a message from John L. Mott, National Chairman. There will be no postponement of the week's activities on account of the influenza situation. The workers in the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign were added to the organization. Another meeting will be held next Tuesday night at the Y. M. C. A., when all arrangements for the drive will be completed.

Those in attendance at Tuesday's meeting were Chairman James McClure, Assistant Chairman John Davis, vice-Chairman Dr. F. P. Campbell, secretary George Doyle, I. L. Price, Edward Gorey, Rev. George R. Combs, John J. Williams, Prof. Lee Kirkpatrick, Rudolph Davis, M. Peale Collier, Rev. R. C. Goldsmith, Misses Imogene Redmon, Olivia Orr and Louise Bruer.

COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION TO MEET.

There will be a meeting of the Bourbon County Board of Education at the office of County Superintendent J. B. Caywood, in the court house, Monday morning, at 9:30 o'clock. Important business will come up for consideration.

Thursday, formal application may be made after arrival in Lexington; three letters of recommendation are required; no telephone calls will be answered.
CAPT. H. N. ROYDEN,
Examining Officer, Camp Buell, University of Kentucky, Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kiser have returned from Ft. Thomas, where they went to meet their son, Lieut. Avonia E. Kiser. Lieut. Kiser, who is in the Medical Reserve Corps of the army, was en route from the Great Lakes Training Station to Plattsburg, New York, from where he will likely go overseas.

Among recent visitors in Paris was Mr. Stanley Keller, of Lexington. Mr. Keller is Corswain in the Naval Training School at Great Lakes, Ill., and had been in Lexington, on a furlough. His father, Mr. Stanley Keller, was formerly editor of the Carlisle Mercury, and is now in the Revenue Collector's office in Lexington.

Basil E. Hayden, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hayden, of Paris, was called yesterday to Camp Buell, at Lexington, where he will begin a year's course in the Chemical Department. Young Hayden is a graduate of the Paris High School, where he made a fine record as a student, and is one of the most promising young men of Paris.

Private Wm. Vice, of Harrison county, died in the Base Hospital at Camp Sheridan, Alabama, after a short illness of influenza. The body was sent to Cynthiana for interment in Battle Grove Cemetery. Young Vice was a brother of Mrs. Clarence Hill, of Parrish avenue, this city, and Mrs. Jesse Cumber and Mrs. Joseph Cumber, both of Bourbon county.

Mr. Glenn P. Shanklin, of Millersburg, who some time ago applied for admission to the Officers Training Corps, passed the physical examination successfully and will be assigned to the school at Camp Fremont, Calif. If Messrs. Morton and Bishop are successful in the physical examinations they will be called to report at the Camp about Dec. 1, to work for commissions as Lieutenants.

Men of the new draft ages will first be mobilized in large numbers early in November under a draft call now in preparation. It calls for the entrainment of more than 200,000 men qualified for general military service. They will be furnished proportionate numbers by every State that the draft calls, suspended during October because of the influenza epidemic, have been renewed and entrainment of all men under the October calls probably will be completed before the November quota is started to the cantonments.

Capt. Collier C. Dawes, formerly of Paris, writes to friends that his company is billeted in a place in beautiful Southern France, where no soldiers have been since the time of Napoleon. His men are well and are very eager to finish up their job and get back home. He said it was rumored in their camp that after the war those who wished to remain and do University work may do so, and that he intended to take advantage of the opportunity, if he is permitted. During his residence in Paris, Capt. Dawes was physical director and assistant secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

EDITORIAL MUSINGS.

Boche Bullets—Sammies Dive.

A new story of the American fighting man's reckless disregard for danger which is one of the greatest problems of their officers to curb was brought to Paris (France) by Wilbur M. Wilson, a Baptist clergyman from Colorado, who went all the way from Chateau Thierry to Flamers with a Pennsylvania regiment in the drive which began in July.

"With my own eyes," said Mr. Wilson, "I have seen American boys steal out from the trenches to a frog pond in No Man's Land, calmly remove their uniforms and dive into the cool waters with German snipers not a hundred yards away in their trenches. The American boy appears to be absolutely unafraid. The greater the number of casualties in his own unit, the greater is his resolve to make the Germans pay the price. His morale increases noticeably every time a comrade falls with German bullets in his body."

Mr. Wilson was in the front lines for two months, serving in the uniform of the Y. M. C. A. Many times, he says, he drove his truck ahead of the field kitchens and furnished hot drinks, smokes and sweets to men who had had nothing to eat for two days except their iron ration. Francis B. Bayre, President Wilson's son-in-law, was with him for two days north of Chateau Thierry. He is on his way back to America to aid in the United War Work Campaign in which the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., the Salvation Army, National Catholic War Council, Knights of Columbus, Jewish Welfare Board, the American Library Association and the War Camp Community Service are co-operating.

A Democratic Congress the Surest Hope.

The most nonsensical reason for the election of a Republican Congress is made by the Kansas City Star, the paper that pays Col. Roosevelt a large sum for his mouthings against President Wilson's conduct of the war. It says that such result would be best for the country because a Republican Congress would support the President "enthusiastically" and criticise him "mercilessly." We have not a doubt that a Republican Congress would do the latter, but there are grave doubts that it would do the former. The President can rely only on the enthusiastic support of his real friends. Therefore, it is the part of wisdom to return a Democratic majority to Congress and Kentucky should lead the van by electing Stanley Senator and each of the nominees for Congress. The latter have never wavered in support of the administration and can be depended upon to keep up the good work.
They should be re-elected by increased majorities as a token of approbation for their course. Let every patriot stamp under the rooster.

Facing Death; Seeks Religious Comfort.

All those engaged in the common purpose of making life a little easier for the boys at the front and in the camps at home and supplying them with some of the comforts that the army regulations do not include, are working as a harmonious unit and word has just been received as to how the seven great forces for mercy, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Knights of Columbus, Jewish Welfare Board,

American Library Association, War
Camp Community Service and the Salvation Army, are co-operating and working together according to the demands of the situation in hand.

A Salvation Army officer reports that the doughboys enjoy and now request meetings of the Salvation Army sort, and that recently two officers of the Salvation Army in France, finding themselves without a place in which to hold a meeting, were offered a nearby Y. M. C. A. hut. There they conducted a real, old-time Salvation Army meeting for the benefit of all the boys, Protestants and Catholics, Jews and Gentiles. Similar instances of co-operation are common among the established organizations in France, where Y. M. C. A. and K. of C. secretaries pull together with the Salvation Army and Jewish agencies, and the byword of the allied soldiers,
as well as the non-official welfare toilers behind the lines, is merely
"Win the War."

PRESIDENT WILSON MAKES RINGING APPEAL.

The ringing appeal of President Wilson to the people of the nation to return a Democratic majority to both houses of Congress and they by sustaining his leadership at this critical time, must carry conviction and determination to every man sincerely concerned in winning the war. Any other result, he says, would seriously impair his power to administer the great trust imposed on him and be interpreted abroad as a repudiation of his leadership is imperatively necessary and a Republican Congress would divide it. On every occasion that party has sought to take the choice of policy and conduct of the war out of his hands and in sundry ways have tried to embarrass him. He does not make the appeal for his own sake, but that of the nation itself, in order that its onward unity of action may be evident to all the world.
This is the time, he says, for plain talk, and he urges the people to express themselves in such a way that there can be no misunderstanding either at home or abroad that they are solid in his support. The President has already said in a dispatch to Rev. E. L. Miley, of Hickman, that he "earnestly desires the election of Gov. Stanley and that he supposed his whole-hearted support of him was known throughout Kentucky." Let every man who sympathizes with the President in his great task hearken to his appeal and elect Gov. Stanley and the Congressional nominees by majorities that will prove to the world their loyalty to the President and the great party he represents.

BACKING UP PROOF

The Kind That Paris People Cannot Deny.

Many an earnest Paris man or woman has publicly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills.

Week after week, month after month you've read their statements.
Would these Paris people recommend any medicine if it were not good?

Would they confirm and repeat their statements after years had passed?

Local proof is good evidence.
Testimony confirmed years after is better evidence.

The following Paris man's statement leaves no room for doubt.

It must convince every kidney sufferer who reads it.

If your back aches—if your kidneys are weak, profit by the experience of George McCandles, Second street.
He says: "My kidneys were inactive and I had backaches. Doan's Kidney Pills put a stop to all the trouble and gave me complete relief."

(Statement given January 17, 1912.)

NO TROUBLE SINCE.

Over four years later, or on November 9, 1916, Mr. McCandles said:
"I haven't had any need of a kidney remedy since I last endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. I consider myself permanently cured."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't

CAN NOW EAT AND SLEEP IN COMFORT.

If troubled with indigestion or sleeplessness you should read what Miss Agnes Turner, Chicago, Ill., has to say: "Overwork, irregular meals and carelessness regarding the ordinary rules of health, gradually undermined it until last fall I became a wreck of my former self. I suffered from continual headache, was unable to digest my food, which seemed to lay as a dead weight on my stomach.
I was very constipated and my complexion became dark, yellow and muddy as I felt. Sleeplessness was added to my misery, and I would awake as tired as when I went to sleep. I heard of Chamberlain's Tablets and found such relief after taking them that I kept up the treatment for nearly two months. They cleansed my stomach, invigorated my system, and since that time I can eat and sleep in comfort. I am to-day entirely well!"

DEFEAT WOULD HAMPER NATION SAYS PRESIDENT

DIVIDED CONTROL WOULD SERIOUSLY INTERFERE WITH CONDUCT OF WAR.

Washington. — President Wilson issued an appeal to the people to return a Democratic Congress in the November elections if they approve of his course in this critical period.

Following is the President's appeal:
"My Fellow-Countrymen:

"The Congressional elections are at hand. They occur in the most critical period our country has ever faced or is likely to face in our time. If you have approved of my leadership and wish me to continue to be your un-embarrassed spokesman in affairs at home and abroad, I earnestly beg that you will express yourselves unmistakeably to that effect by returning a Democratic majority to both the Senate and House of Representatives.

"I am your servant and will accept your judgment without cavil, but my power to administer the great trust as-President Woodrow Wilson.

signed me by the constitution would be seriously impaired should your judgment be adverse, and I must frankly tell you so because so many critical issues depend upon your verdict. No scruple of taste must in grim times like these be allowed to stand in the way of speaking the plain truth.

Divided Leadership.

"I have no thought of suggesting that any political party is paramount in matters of patriotism. I feel too deeply the sacrifices which have been made in this war by all our citizens irrespective of party affiliations to harbor such an idea. I mean only that the difficulties and delicacies of our present task are of a sort that makes it imperatively necessary that the nation should give its undivided support to the government under a unified leadership and that a Republican Congress would divide the leadership.

Unity of Command.

"The leaders of the minority in the present Congress have unquestionably been pro-war, but they have been anti-administration. At almost every turn since we entered the war they have sought to take choice of policy and the conduct of the war out of my hands and put it under the control of insu-rmentalities of their own choosing.

"This is no time either for divided council or for divided leadership. Unity of command is as necessary now in civil action as it is upon the field of battle. If the control of the House and the Senate should be taken away from the party now in power an opposing majority could assume control of legislation and oblige all action to be taken amidst contest and obstruction.

Interpretation Abroad.

"The return of a Republican majority to either House of the Congress would, moreover, be interpretative on the other side of the water as a repudiation of my leadership. Spokesmen of the Republican party are urging you to elect a Republican Congress in order to back up and support the President, but even if they should in this impose upon some credulous voters on this side of the water, they would impose on no one on the other side. It is well understood there as well as here that the Republican leaders desire not so much to support the President, as to control him.

"The people of the allied countries with whom we are associated against Germany are quite familiar with the significance of elections. They would find it very difficult to believe that the voters of the United States had so chosen to support their President by electing to the Congress a majority controlled by those who are in fact not in sympathy with the attitude and action of the administration.

"I need not tell you, my fellow-countrymen, that I am asking your support, not for my own sake or for the sake of a political party, but for the sake of the nation itself in order that its inward unity of purpose may be evident to all the world. In ordinary times divided councils can be endured without permanent hurt to the country.
But these are not ordinary times.

"If in these critical days it is your wish to sustain me with undivided minds, I beg that you will say so in a way which it will not be possible to misunderstand either at home or among our associates on the other side of the sea. I submit my difficulties and my hopes to you.

MAYO BROTHERS CLAIM INFLUENZA SERUM PERFECTED.

ST. PAUL, MINN., Oct. 31.—Dr. William J. Mayo, advising the Board of Regents at the University of Minnesota that the university should not be opened to civilian students, in view of the epidemic of influenza in the State, announced that a serum treatment has been perfected at the Mayo Institutional at Rochester that thus far has prevented a single case of pneumonia developing following attacks of the Spanish influenza.

"More than 1,000 cases have been treated with the serum, and in no case we know that had preventive inoculation has pneumonia developed," Dr. Mayo said. "We are not absolutely sure, except that we know the inoculation can do no harm."

Referring to the possibility of the serum being used in the army barracks and elsewhere, Dr. Mayo said the Government probably will not be able to obtain the serum in quantities until the supply is developed. He said the anti-pneumonia serum had been combined with another preventive serum, and that the experiments now are being watched closely.

"Moreover," Dr. Mayo continued, "Spanish influenza is just the old-fashioned gripe, and should run its course in a month or a little more. We are now in the second lap in this country, and in a few weeks, we should be clear of the epidemic."

Cascarets Best Family Laxative

Harmless to keep liver, bowels and stomach clean, and cost only 10 cents

Feel grand! Be efficient! Clean your torpid liver and sluggish bowels with good, harmless Cascarets. They don't gripe or sicken. Give yourself a good cleaning and rid yourself of headaches, bilious spells, dizziness, sallowness, bad breath, stomach sourness, gases, etc. Cheer up! Get a 10-cent box from any drug store. Also best cathartic for bilious, constipated children—tastes like candy, but never fails. Cascarets work while you sleep.

LETTERS FROM BOURBON COUNTY SOLDIERS AND SAILORS

Mr. Rene Clark, who enlisted in the service and was sent to the Great Lakes Naval Training Station, has been transferred to Hampton Roads, Va., where he is to be assigned to one of Uncle Sam's ships. In a recent letter to THE NEWS, Mr. Clark says:

"Hampton Roads, Va., Oct. 24. "Dear NEWS:—Uncle Sam has had a big game of checkers since I last dropped you a line. He has moved me from Great Lakes, Ill., to the Naval Base Hospital, at Hampton Roads, Va. I had the Spanish influenza for about one week, but as the nurses and the corpsmen were very scarce they kept me there for about four weeks. During that time I had a very unpleasant duty to discharge to the best of my ability. I had to talk with fellows who were delirious and on the verge of death. If someone wasn't there to talk to them they would get out of bed and run around in the ward. Some of these fellows talked and talked until the last breath had left their bodies. One fellow asked me to get his mother, and I had to tell him that I would. I would get out of his sight and soon came back. During my absence he would forget his mother, and when I came in he would ask me if I was the man who made glass eyes. So many curious things clear up when a fellow is near death. It is an awful sight to see the brave and willing sailors die, but only God calls them.

"I am now in fine health, and after sleeping in a bed for four weeks you can imagine how glad I am to get back to my hammock. It isn't home until I get into the old hammock. Sometimes I get in and during the night I get out and the next morning I am very stiff and sore from the fall. But, however, it all comes in the day's work in the navy. To-morrow night I shall swing up my hammock on the U. S. S. Kearsage. She is a third-class battleship and is a sister ship to the U. S. S. Kentucky. Two crews went out to the station to-day, one for the U. S. S. Kentucky, and one for the U. S. S. Illinois. I leave in the morning on a transport, therefore I expect to see France.

"How is the old town progressing? It must be going right along, as I read of the results of the Fourth Shot at Kaiser Bill. Keep THE NEWS going, and I am sure Paris will 'go over the top' every time in everything.

"Well, I must close and hope some chow, or else I will starve. Goping old Kentucky and Bourbon county will roll up an overwhelming majority for the Fifth Liberty Loan, I am, 'Yours for this war,'

"RENE CLARK, "Unit B, Co. 160, U. S. Naval Operating Base, Hampton Roads, Va."

First Lieutenant Philip T. Williams, a native of Greensburg, Ky., who is a personal friend of Sgt.-Maj. Earl Curtis, of Paris, now in France, has written to Mr. H. C. Curtis, of this city, enclosing a postcard photo of Sgt.-Maj. Curtis. The photo shows Sgt. Curtis standing in front of a "dugout" with another officer, Lieut. Williams, in his letter to Mr. Curtis, said, in part:

"It is with a great deal of pleasure that I take advantage of this opportunity to write you and enclose a card from your son, who is now in France, and is the Regimental Sergeant-Major of my former regiment. He entrusted this card to me in the hope that I might get a chance to see you, and tell you some of the things that he is not permitted to write you, but that is neither here nor there. In fact, I could not feel free to tell you much of it even if it were possible to see you.

"Our regiment has been in one scrap with almost no casualties. Earl is well, and is contented and as happy as any healthy, red-blooded American can be away from home, and is fortunate in being in a position where he will be thrown into very little danger unless he is promoted, as I expect he will be very soon.

"When I left the outfit it was back of the lines, about ten miles, resting before going into the front again. They have no doubt before this time been engaged with the enemy again, and I wait with impatience to hear what they have done, knowing that they can fight and are anxious to do so. We have not had a great many hardships to undergo, and, of course, it is no hothouse life. There is dirty work to be done, and our boys are doing their share, as we expect them to do. But they have lots of good clothes, plenty of substantial food, all the equipment and ammunition that they want, and the support of a unified nation behind them. So you may see that there is very little to want for, in war. Of course, they every one want to get back home, but not before this little show over there is finished.

"The French people show us every courtesy, and try to make us as agreeable as possible for us. At the same time they very cheerfully relieve us of any surplus money we may have on our persons, using for bait their wines, all of which are of questionable quality, since the American has done his best to drink up all the old vintage. In fact, you may go into a town to-day and get a very good wine for perhaps four francs and the next day (Americans being present) the price will unaccountably have risen to ten or twelve francs, and perhaps the test will show 90% water. We look at this as industry and fair bargaining. It simply means a little less wine and a much better American soldier.

"The Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., K. of C. and the Salvation Army do all they can to make the men comfortable and to furnish them with the place and material for writing home. Also, they are on the job with tobacco, candy and little delicacies that go far toward making a man satisfied.

"What I have said has not been said to belittle the danger that our soldiers undergo, nor the bravery that they have shown at every opportunity, but to impress upon you the splendid use that has been made of the funds that the Government and the charitable institutions allied with our Government in this great cause have spent in this huge enterprise.

"Our troops have had a great number of casualties, perhaps because of their great impetuosity and the absolute absence of fear, but they are giving themselves to a great ideal, and none of them are afraid to die. The wounded men have the greatest desire imaginable to get back into the scrap and get even with the Hun that had the nerve to take a pot shot at him. But most frequently it is a machine gun or a shell that gets our men, for we are not fighting the Germans, but we are fighting the machines of the Germans, which takes only the more bravery because the joy of personal combat is not there.

"I have been ordered to Camp Logan, Texas, as an instructor, and, in all probability, will not be able to see you, but it is a great pleasure to write to the father of one of our fighting men on the other side, especially when that fighting man is a real, manly, upstanding, likeable, fine soldier as I know Sgt.-Maj. Earl Curtis to be.

"Yours truly, "PHILIP T. WILLIAMS, "First Lieutenant 143d Infantry."

The Autumn Welworths Are Here---and the Price is Still Unchanged

—Here's an announcement of which we are justly proud, for it evidences many things about which a real service-giving store has a right to feel proud.

—First, it stresses the point that we will keep prices as low as we can as long as we can.

—Second, it proves the benefit to the consumer of our intimate co-operation with worthy manufacturers.

—Thirdly, it exemplifies a style service, which brings us the new styles first, the same styles on the same day as they first appear in the recognized style centers of the country.

These Welworths are still priced at $2.00. They now and for many months past have represented values that would warrant a much higher price. Before the end of the present year the price must inevitably be increased to $2.50.

DEATHS.

TALBOTT.

A beautiful young life, one fraught with many possibilities for happiness, both to those she loved and to the community in general, went out into the Great Beyond shortly after noon Tuesday, when the spirit of Mrs. Elizabeth Hinton Talbott, went to its Maker.

Day by day, when the seriousness of Mrs. Talbott's illness became manifest, there was a steady stream of inquiries from all over the city and county, showing the strong hold which this young woman had taken in the love and affection of the people. With a disposition such as hers it could not have been otherwise. For days her life hung in the balance, while all that loving hands could do, with the help of physicians who ministered to her day and night, was done to stay the hand of Death. But the disease which had fastened upon her had gained too strong a hold, and, despite her determined resistance, conquered in the struggle.

In the death of Mrs. Talbott the community fully and keenly realizes a sense of personal loss. She was a true friend, and her devotion to those she loved would make a bright chapter in any life. Nothing but the thought of the loving hand that has removed her can reconcile the husband, the father, and those relatives and friends to whom her life was an undisputed blessing. While she has gone from the scenes, the conflicts, the sorrows, the pleasures of life, she will still live in the hearts of those who knew her best. Her retiring nature led her to hide the best qualities from public gaze, yet it was in her home that her true worth was most conspicuous. She was a kind and loving daughter, and her devotion was limited only by her physical restrictions. Nature blessed her with a lovely voice, which had been carefully trained, and which she used for the pleasure and benefit of her friends, and in the church worship of the Christian church, of which she had long been a devoted member.

Mrs. Talbott, who was in her twenty-third year, was the eldest daughter of Mr. Edward T. Hinton, of this city, her mother having preceded her to the grave many years ago. She is survived by her husband, Mr. Wm. M. Talbott, who is ill of influenza at the family home; her father, Mr. Edward T. Hinton, and one sister, Miss Elmeta Hinton; by her maternal and paternal grandfathers, former Judge J. Harry Brent, and former Mayor John T. Hinton, of Paris. Mrs. Talbott was a niece of Hugh I. Brent, Wm. O. Hinton, Albert Hinton and Hon. Claude M. Thomas, all of Paris, John T. Hinton, Jr., of Huntington, West Virginia, and Mrs. Mary Brent Chambers, of Louisville.

Her breath went out like the exhalation of a sweetly fragrant minion of the woodlands, and in her stead is left only a holy and beautiful memory, a memory that will last and sanctify longer than the span of our lives. "God touched her with His fingers and she slept," but not until a beautiful life had been lived. And now that she sleeps the sleep of Death, memory takes up the harp of life, and, smiling the strings, finds that her virtues melt into music like that of her glorious young voice. "Mourn not the lost."

In realms of changeless bliss He who beholds our sadness, Fond hearts will unite again."

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Services were conducted at the grave in the Paris Cemetery by Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the church to which her lovely life had been devoted. Rev. Ellis paid a beautiful tribute to the life and character of Mrs. Talbott, after which the body was consigned to its last resting place, under a mound of flowers that attested by their sweet fragrance the sympathy and love of her friends. Mrs. Macie White Plithian sang a beautiful solo, "In A Garden."

The pall-bearers were A. L. Boatright, W. H. Whitley, Claude M. Thomas, Varden Shipp, Albert Hinton, Hugh Brent, Dr. H. E. Foster and Dr. J. M. Williams.

PANETOS.

Angele Panetos, aged twenty-five, who for some time conducted the City Restaurant in the Fordham Hotel building in this city, died in Middlesboro recently, after a brief illness of pneumonia.

Mr. Panetos was a native of Greece, and came to Paris several years ago from Lexington, where he had been in the restaurant business. He bought out the City Restaurant, which had previously been conducted by Mr. James Pappas, and formed a partnership with Mr. John Tunis, who is now in business in Danville. The restaurant enjoyed an excellent patronage for some time, but business reverses coming on, it was closed out. Mr. Panetos went to Lexington, where for a time he was with the City Restaurant and the Metropolitan Restaurant. From there he went to Middlesboro, where he was engaged in the same business. A cold contracted several days ago developed into pneumonia, causing his death.

Mr. Panetos was well-liked here, being of a jovial disposition, and made many friends who regret his passing away. He was a nephew of Gus Vermillion, of Lexington.

BLACKBURN.

Fred G. Blackburn, fireman on the Louisville & Nashville, died at his home on Parrish avenue, in Paris, Sunday night, of pneumonia. He was a son of Robert and Ada Blackburn, and was born in Harrison county October 15, 1895. His father died in 1912. His mother, who survives him, still resides near Cynthia.

Mr. Blackburn was married in 1913 to Miss Nina Kearns, of Harrison county, who survives, with three small children. He is also survived by one brother, Lawrence Blackburn, and one sister, Mrs. Barney Northcutt, of Harrison county. The family had been living in Paris since August.

The funeral and burial took place at Curry, in Harrison county, Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Blackburn had been a member of the Curry church for several years.

COX.

The body of Edward Cox, aged about thirty years, who died at the Massie Memorial Hospital, in Paris, Tuesday morning, of influenza, was sent to Morehead, Ky., Wednesday. Cox was a native of Elliott county. The body was taken from the institution to the Geo. W. Davis undertaking establishment and prepared for burial. Morehead being the nearest point to his former home the body was shipped there.

Cox was employed on the Kalapa farm of Mr. Edward Simms, on the North Middletown pike, near Paris. He was stricken with the disease while at work, and was removed to the Massie Memorial Hospital. He is survived by his widow and four children.

BRAMEL.

The body of Dan Bramel, L. & engineer, who died in Latonia, Monday, of influenza, was brought to Paris, Wednesday, for interment in the Paris Cemetery. Short services were conducted at the grave by Rev. R. C. Goldsmith, pastor of the Paris Baptist church, followed by committal services by representatives of the K. of P. lodge, of which he was a member.

Mr. Bramel was a son of Mr. Robt. L. Bramel. He is survived by his widow, two little children, two sisters, Mrs. J. H. Gardner, of Paris, and Mrs. C. D. Wright, of Piqua, Robertson county, and one brother, Mr. Edward Bramel, who is a patient at the Massie Memorial Hospital, in Paris, an influenza sufferer.

TO NURSES AND OTHER RED CROSS WORKERS.

1—All colds, however slight, should be treated as possible attacks of influenza. Patients affected by colds should stay at home and sterilize discharges from nose and throat.

2—Avoid feeling or spreading fear of the disease.

3—Avoid crowds.

4—Regulate bodily functions and keep them so.

5—Avoid the breath or expelled secretions from people suffering from colds.

6—Wash out the nose and throat two or three times daily by a nasal spray or douche and by a gargle with a "normal salt solution" (one-half teaspoonful salt to one glass (8 ounces) clean water).

7—All those in attendance on patients with influenza should wear masks such as are provided by the Red Cross Nursing Bureau.

8—Clothing should be warm and dry. Food simple and easily digested. Drink water freely.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. ELIZABETH
HINTON TALBOTT.

The following beautiful tribute to Mrs. Elizabeth Hinton Talbott, was delivered at the funeral Wednesday afternoon by Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church. They typify the beautiful life of this popular young woman, whose passing away has laid a heavy pall of grief and sorrow upon relatives and friends:

"We have just watched a beautiful voyager on life's sea pass safely into port. The sails, despite all the experiences of wind and weather, are as white as when given to the breeze when first it was launched upon the sea of time. The cargo is rich and abundant. No port has been touched in all this voyage but has yielded something to the precious freightage of this queenly ship. At every port, to every ship saluted on this great sea of time, something has been given of rich supply—and, giving, has always enriched and never impoverished. The voyage has sometimes been against the current and the tide, but the beautiful voyager has been staunch and true, and never truer spirit held the wheel."

"But at last the voyage is ended, and the queenly voyager has anchored in the peaceful harbor amidst the triumphant shout of the great crowd of witnesses that welcomed her into that peaceful haven of eternal rest. No more lashing of the waves of care, no more tossing to and fro by adverse winds, no more giving of her rich supply to her fellow-voyagers on life's sea, but all is calm and beautiful now, and the moanings of the sea of life have changed into the sweet music of the choir invisible."

"How queenly has been this voyager. How thoroughly equipped for this perilous voyage, how perfectly she has sailed the sea of life. How gracefully she has glided into the harbor of safety. And now that she is safely anchored in that peaceful haven, what blissful rest in sweet repose in the arms of the infinite love of Him who is the Master of the seas."

"This is the impression that the life of this beautiful girl, so pure, and blessed and sweet, has made on my mind."

"I think of her as having gone just a little way from us, and, oh, how we long to follow her into her new home, to inquire into her new life and to find in what her new happiness consists. For the spirit would never become quite so near to us and so real to us as when we follow into it our loved ones and sympathize with them in the improvements and the enjoyments of that blessed life."

"What a delicate refinement was hers, and how tenderly she felt for those she loved. What goodness, what purity, what sympathy, what intensity of love she ever manifested for her loved ones. And with it all how gentle and sweet and lovely. In her home she silently spread around her that soft, pure light, the beauty of which is never fully known until it is gone."

"How she will be missed from the circle in which she moved. What tender services she has rendered to the Master in the use of her beautiful voice which God had given her for ministry. In the social circle, in convention hall, in the church of God, and by the open grave she has used that sweet voice to soothe and comfort the hearts of thousands and stir and cheer the hearts of thousands more."

"What a beautiful spirit she had. There was a cheerfulness and sunshine of soul that made her so attractive, and gave to her a sacred place in the hearts of others. There was a delicacy of feeling and a sympathy of heart that gave to her the power to communicate with ease and interest the feelings of her own soul, and led her to minister to every cry of need. How gentle, how tender, how living. Life was sweet to her and the world was beautiful. She loved childhood and flowers and sunshine and song and everything that made for happiness and good cheer. Her heart was full of generous impulses, noble aspirations and unselfish devotion."

"How soul-inspiring it is to contemplate the transformation of such a soul in the presence of Jesus, with a new reception of his spirit, and a new compensation of his mind, so that she can enter into His vast God-like thoughts and associate with Him in the great ends for which he lives, with an unending admiration and an immortal grandeur of love."

"What must be the felicity of that world into which she has gone where souls are free from selfishness, open as the day, thirsting for new truth, free from all sin, and communicating themselves with the freedom of perfect love—a communion marred by no passion, chilled by no reserve, depressed by no consciousness of sin, and overflowing with innocent joy—a communion where perfect beings give familiar utterance to their divinest inspirations and where the swellings of an unconfined sympathy and love is unending."

"The beautiful life is ended here, but the blessed immortality continues over there. Our loved one is at peace with God. She has just gone on before. One by one we shall soon follow on. She has gone to join the choir invisible and add to the music of the angelic chorus. But she leaves a rich heritage in the memory of her beautiful life of unselfish devotion. 'Sure when thy gentle spirit fled To realms beyond the azure dome, With outstretched arms and angels said: Welcome to Heaven, Home, Sweet Home.'"

FARMING CONDITIONS IN BOURBON COUNTY.

Farmers have been taking advantage of the weather conditions for husking corn, hoping not to get caught like they did last season, when much of the corn was not shucked and cribbed until after the Christmas holidays on account of the bad weather conditions.

They are also rushing the work on stripping tobacco, while the season is good for that kind of work. Many of them, however, are taking the weed from the tiers to the stripping room, as they are afraid to bulk it on account of the sap that has not dried out of the stalk, fearing it would mold when bulked.

Other phases of farm work are being rushed along, in anticipation of the near approach of bad weather, which would necessarily retard the work. Labor has not been any too plentiful, the draft service in the army having made serious inroads on the ranks of laborers, especially on the farms. Good prices are ruling. Several Paris men who have been in lines of business that have been closed by the influenza scare, have gone to stripping tobacco, in order to utilize their spare time.

STATE HEALTH BOARD ORDER APPLIES TO COUNTY, TOO.

Notice to the Citizens of of Bourbon County:

The order of the State Board of Health of October 6, closing all churches, theatres and other places of public assembly, public funerals, etc., throughout Kentucky, is absolutely mandatory until the influenza epidemic is over.

To correct any misapprehension that may exist, attention is directed to the fact that all orders apply to the country as well as to the towns.

"BACK TO SCHOOL" DRIVE STAT-ED BY LABOR BUREAU.

With the view of inducing children of school age to keep on with their studies instead of going to work, a "Back to School" drive has been started by the Children's Bureau of the Department of Labor. The drive will be conducted through the child conservation section of the Council of National Defense and committees will be appointed in each of the 281,000 schools of the country.

Investigations of the Children's Bureau have shown that large numbers of children are leaving schools to take advantage of the high wages now being paid, instead of studying to train themselves to fill the many skilled positions which will be open after the war. The drive has been planned to counteract this tendency. Recognizing that the wages of children are needed in many cases to supplement the family income, arrangements have been made by the bureau with the Red Cross to help the child stay in school.

The paper will be on sale each day at Baldwin Bros' grocery, corner of Main and Seventh streets, and on Sunday at the Longo fruit stand, on Main, between Seventh and Eighth streets.

SUES SON-IN-LAW FOR DAMAGES

Suit for $10,000 damages, alleged to have been sustained as the result of an automobile accident, has been filed in the office of Circuit Clerk Wm. H. Webb, against Dr. J. W. Mebane, colored physician, by his mother-in-law, Mrs. Susan Helpen.

In her petition Mrs. Helpen alleges that while she was out riding with Dr. Mebane the automobile turned turtle. She was thrown out on the ground and her hand and wrist crushed to such an extent that her arm had to be amputated.

SPECIAL REGISTRATION FIGURES

In view of the approaching State election, voters who did not get to register on the regular registration days, filed their affidavits in the office of County Clerk Pearce Paton, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. On the first day, Monday, the registration was as follows: Democrats 23, Republicans 1, Independents 1. On Tuesday, the second day, the figures were as follows: Democrats 28, Republicans 2. On Wednesday, the closing day, the figures were as follows: 39 Democrats, making a total for the three days of ninety Democrats.

NEW ORDER LIMITS DELIVERY OF GOODS.

Next Monday, November 4, a new ruling recently promulgated by the Food Administration regarding deliveries of goods by merchants of Paris, will become effective. This order, according to report, will make it mandatory on the merchant to deliver all goods to the consumer on the day following the receipt of the order. In no event can deliveries of goods be made the same day the order is received. The order from the State and County Food Administrators was read at a recent meeting of the retail merchants of Paris.

WAR WILL GIVE PATRIDGES CHANCE TO FILL FIELDS.

The hunting season in Bourbon county is fast approaching, and it is expected that on November 15 all the lovers of the sport who are not in the army and who are able to spare time from war work will hie to the fields and woods.

So many of the younger men have gone into the service and the others are so busy that it may be safe to say that comparatively few sportsmen will be abroad, and thus the war will prove a boon to Bob White. He will be given a chance to restore the destruction wrought in his numbers by the fearful weather of last winter.

LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE PROMOTIONS.

A large force of carpenters began yesterday the work of constructing an extension to the Train Dispatchers' building near the Tenth street passenger station of the Louisville & Nashville, in this city. For some time the dispatchers have been working at a disadvantage, on account of their crowded quarters, and this new addition to the building will furnish them with plenty of room. The north end of the building will be reconstructed, and two large rooms added, in which the clerical force will be enabled to work with more comfort.

A number of changes will be made in the clerical force, by reason of promotions, which will go into effect tomorrow in the office of Superintendent J. A. Morrison. The offices affected by the change are as follows: Assistant Master of Trains R. D. Smith will be promoted to Master of Trains, and transferred to Corbin; Chief Train Dispatcher W. K. Griffin will succeed Mr. Smith here as Assistant Master of Trains; Night Chief Dispatcher Henry L. Terrill will step up as Chief Dispatcher, and Mr. Thos. McDonald will take up the duties of Mr. Terrill's former position.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Comings and Goings of Our People Here, There and Elsewhere.

NORTH MIDDLETOWN CONTRIBUTORS THANKED BY HOSPITAL PEOPLE.

During the recent "drive" for contributions of poultry and eggs for the sick soldiers in the Base Hospital at Camp Zachary Taylor there was no more generous response from any part of the county than from North Middletown. The work in that precinct was in charge of Miss Daisy Detwiler, acting in conjunction with the North Middletown Red Cross Chapter. Miss Detwiler has received the following letter from the Base Hospital authorities, which is self-explanatory. Miss Detwiler desires THE NEWS to state that they are still receiving donations of chickens and eggs on Mondays and Thursdays, which will be forwarded to Camp Taylor. The letter follows:

"Base Hospital,
Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky.
October, 23, 1918.

"Miss Daisy Detwiler,
Chapter American Red Cross,
North Middletown, Ky.
Dear Miss Detwiler:

"The chickens sent us by your Red Cross Chapter have been received in good condition.

"Through you and in behalf of the patients, I wish to thank the contributors and assure them that their assistance is greatly appreciated.

"Yours sincerely,
"F. W. LENZ,
"First Lt. S. C. Mess Officers."

RACING COMMISSION MEETS.

A meeting of the State Racing Commission was held Wednesday morning at the office of the organization in the Fayette National Bank, Lexington. No business was transacted. Manager John Hachmeister of the Douglas Park and Latonia tracks was present and outlined his plans for the beginning of the autumn meeting at Latonia.

The members present were Hart Talbott, of Paris; ex-Senator Johnson N. Camden, of Woodford county, and General William B. Haldeman, of Louisville.

After going over the result of the season's racing and the prospects for next year the meeting adjourned.

NOTES FROM THE KENTUCKY OIL FIELDS.

Although operations in the Eastern Kentucky fields have not been menaced by the influenza epidemic as much as in other high grade fields, the result can be plainly noted from a trip through the productive districts in Estill, Lee and Wolfe counties, where the epidemic is raging. Several of the largest companies in the Kentucky fields have practically suspended operations, owing to the lack of labor, the epidemic having reached such a stage that drillers refuse to go into the field, unless physicians can be on hand on short notice. As a result, the number of completed wells reported from these districts last week was smaller than it has been during any week since work was resumed on a large scale in the spring.

While the epidemic has caused severe suffering in Irvine and Beattyville, the rural districts of Lee and Estill were perhaps hit harder than the two towns, owing to the fact that there are few rural doctors in those sections. As a rule, companies operating in Lee, Estill and Wolfe counties, depend, to a certain extent, upon the natives of those counties for labor, and due to the epidemic, skilled labor, brought from other States is practically all that is available, and under these conditions, most companies are operating only one shift, where they are operating at all.

Mr. James H. Moreland, of Paris, who is in charge of field operations for the Bourbon Oil & Development Co., in Lee and Estill counties, was in Paris recently. Mr. Moreland said the situation was very acute, owing to the lack of labor and the influenza. Weather conditions were also very bad, the mud being ankle-deep in some places.

ELECT MEN WHO WILL FIGHT THE KAISER, NOT WILSON—
SUPPORTERS, NOT CRITICS

STANLEY STANDS WITH WILSON
IN PEACE AS WELL AS IN WAR

EMINENT MINISTERS INDORSE
STANLEY FOR SENATOR

All Other Issues Must Give Way, Says Dr. W.
W. Landrum, One of Louisville's Foremost Temperance Advocates.

October 11, 1918.

Dear Brother:
Grace, mercy and peace be with thee.

In a Louisville morning paper I read to-day a report of a certain resolution said to have been passed by the Western Baptist Association. The title of the paper's report is "Vote as You Pray."

All Baptists should vote as they pray. Just now the burden of our prayer should be that the world may be made safe for democracy. Lloyd George, premier of Great Britain, as you know, the most distinguished Baptist in the world, wrote Mr. Coleman, president of the Northern Baptist Convention: "Tell the Baptist brotherhood that we are fighting for Baptist principles."

Baptist principles are democratic principles. Democratic principles are to-day in this country in the hands of the Democratic party. A Democratic President is the mouthpiece of that party. His word will close the war and determine matters after the war. Behind him every lover of democratic principles should stand today.

I am a prohibitionist, but prohibition is res adjudicata. The Kentucky

Legislature has passed the prohibition amendment. Congress has voted as a dry nation. National prohibition is as dead an issue as slavery or free silver.

The one great issue is the winning of the war and the settlement of the momentous questions arising after the war. Those questions must be settled by the party that always sustains the President.

I believe our brother Gasthite voted as he prayed when he voted to nominate Gov. Stanley for Senator. I believe Senator Frost spoke as he prayed when he introduced Gov. Stanley along with Senator Beckham. I believe Hon. H. V. McChesney voted as he prayed when he supports Gov. Stanley for Senator. I know of no more conscientious Baptists in Kentucky. And there are others.

With malice towards none and with charity for all, insisting as we do on Baptist individualism and conscientiousness, I am willing to place myself among those of our brotherhood who believe that this is the time for all men to be sure they are in perfect accord with our President. Gov. Stanley is such a man and the President can rely on him during and after the war.

With all good wishes and high regards fraternally yours for democratic principles in both church and State.

W. W. LANDRUM,
DON SINGLETARY, H. H. Moderator,
Clinton, Ky.

"I earnestly desire the election of Governor Stanley to the United States Senate."

WOODROW WILSON

WILSON WANTS STANLEY TO HELP HIM WIN THE WAR

Wilson Wants a Democratic Senate To Conclude An Early and Victorious Peace.

Wilson Wants a Democratic Congress To Aid Him In Bringing the Boys Back Home.

Supported by a Senate in thorough accord with his wise policies and lofty ideas, Woodrow Wilson will speedily bring peace and order to a distracted world. This glorious day will be delayed if he and his party are repudiated at the polls and Lodge and Pearson and their faithful follower, Dr. Bruner, are permitted to heckle and harass him. Every day's unnecessary continuance of this struggle means the loss of precious lives, means weary hours of waiting for the return of our loved-ones.

Support Wilson, his party and his followers for the sake of our brave boys abroad; indorse him for the sake of their loved-ones at home. Gladden the great heart of the first citizen of the world by a vote of confidence on November 5.

Stanley Indorsed By Labor

It is my most earnest wish that Mr. Stanley may continue to serve all of the people of the nation, and particularly the wage earners as an official representative in public office. Fraternally yours,
SAMUEL GOMPERS,
President American Federation of Labor.

Cadiz Minister Exposes Campaign Canard

Cadiz, Ky., Oct. 22, 1918.

My attention has been called to a statement in the Louisville press that all six preachers in our town were opposed to the election of Stanley as Senator. The author of that pronouncement had never consulted me. I am not a Democrat in politics, and am not now interested in hair's breadth in the partisan phases of this campaign. But my sober judgment of the issues involved compel me to favor the election of Mr. Stanley in preference to Mr. Bruner. Certain Baptist Associations in Western Kentucky have seen fit in the exercise of their inalienable right to urge our people to vote against Mr. Stanley, but to that advice I cannot consent.

The prohibition question is a negligible matter in this campaign. That issue has reached such a stage that no matter which man is elected, his vote will fall on the right side. Mr. Stanley's personal habits—past or present—do not determine on which side his vote will be cast. When nation-wide prohibition comes to a vote, good sense and good politics will put Stanley on the prohibition side. But, were his vote known to be against nation-wide prohibition, I should still emphatically favor his election.

The support of the President in the prosecution of this war is also a secondary matter. Both Mr. Bruner and Mr. Stanley can be depended upon to fight this war through to a finish. In the present fever-heat of American patriotism, it would not be good sense or good politics for a Senator not to do so. Were the patriotic prosecution of this war the issue between these two men, I would not turn my hand over for the difference between them.

The issue in this campaign is greater and more vital than either of the things named. That issue is this: Shall certain definite ideals of social, economic and political justice for the world be realized. For the first time in many years we seem to have a President whose thinking is as clear and thorough as his purpose is positive and unshakable. Thinkers and idealists to whom this era of justice has been a pleasant dream, and who have been somewhat skeptical of all politicians and their promises (even of Wilson at the outset) are now confident that they have as a President a man whose thought moves on as lofty a pitch as theirs, and who also has the political acumen to translate those ideals into legislation. OUR CONFIDENCE IS IN WOODROW WILSON. Let me quote from a recent magazine issue:

"Progressive citizens of whatever party have adopted President Wilson as their leader."
The crucial matter in this campaign is not what Stanley or Bruner will do while the war is on, but what they will do when the war is ended. Either man will fight the war through to a finish—it would be his finish if he did not. But the probabilities are that one man would follow the leadership of his party chieftain and go WHERE WOODROW WILSON IS GOING, while the other man would line up with one of the two sections of the Republican party. It is on that "probability" that I FAVOR WHOLE HEARTEDLY THE ELECTION OF STANLEY AS OUR SENATOR. Wilson has the aims and the ideals; he needs now the chance to put them into law. I am for giving him the MAN HE WANTS so that full responsibility can be thrust on him for any failure, if there is failure.
To my mind these vast and world-significant matters of social justice, of economic right, of political liberty demand with compelling voice that every man who loves his fellow shall vote for Stanley as a Wilson man.

Sincerely, LESLIE L. SANDERS, Pastor First Baptist Church.

BECKHAM BACKS STANLEY

I have left the most pressing and urgent duties at the National Capital and traveled a thousand miles to bring to you this message that your President and his associates are watching with anxious and intense interest the outcome of this election in Kentucky and are hoping that you will not fail to show your appreciation of the splendid work which has been done by giving a vote of confidence on the November election day and electing to the Senate Gov. A. O. Stanley.

SENATOR J. C. W. BECKHAM.

World Will Consider Election of Republican Congress a Repudiation of Wilson
President Says "A Vote For Bruner Is a Vote Against Me."
Democratic Defeat Would Hamper Nation At Critical Time.

"My Fellow Countrymen:

"The Congressional elections are at hand. They occur in the most critical period our country has ever faced or is likely to face in our time. If you have approved of my leadership and wish me to continue to be your unembarrassed spokesman in affairs at home and abroad, I earnestly beg that you will express yourself unmistakably to that effect by returning a Democratic majority to both the Senate and House of Representatives.

"I am your servant and will accept your judgment without cavil, but my power to administer the great trust assigned me by the constitution would be seriously impaired, should your judgment be adverse, and I must frankly tell you so because so many critical issues depend upon your verdict. No scruple of taste must in grim times like these be allowed to stand in the way of speaking the plain truth.

Divided Leadership.

"I have no thought of suggesting that any political party is paramount in matters of patriotism. I feel too deeply the sacrifices which have been made in this war by all our citizens irrespective of party affiliations to harbor such an idea. I mean only that the difficulties and delicacies of our present task are of a sort that makes it imperatively necessary that the nation should give its undivided support to the government under a unified leadership and that a Republican Congress would divide the leadership.

Interpretation Abroad.

"The return of a Republican majority to either House of the Congress would, moreover, be interpretative on the other side of the water as a repudiation of my leadership. Spokesmen of the Republican party are urging you to elect a Republican Congress in order to back up and support the President, but even if they should in this impose upon some credulous voters on this side of the water, they would impose on no one on the other side. It is well understood there as well as here that the Republican leaders desire not so much to support the President as to control him.

The people of the Allied countries with whom we are associated against Germany are quite familiar with the significance of elections. They would find it very difficult to believe that the voters of the United States had so chosen to support their President by electing to the Congress a majority controlled by those who are in fact not in sympathy with the attitude and action of the administration.

For Sake of Nation.

"I need not tell you, my fellow countrymen, that I am asking your support not for my own sake or for the sake of a political party, but for the sake of the nation itself in order that its inward unity of purpose may be evident to all the world. In ordinary times I would not feel at liberty to make such an appeal to you. In ordinary times divided counsels can be endured without permanent hurt to the country. But these are not ordinary times.

"If in these critical days it is your wish to sustain me with undivided minds, I beg that you will say so in a way which it will not be possible to misunderstand either at home or among our associates on the other side of the sea. I submit my difficulties and my hopes to you.

FOOD ADMINISTRATION FIXES HOG PRICES.

CINCINNATI, OHIO, Oct. 31.—Following advice from Washington of the result of the conference the past week in Washington in regard to hog prices for November, there was a special session Saturday morning of the Cincinnati Live Stock Exchange, which pledged the Exchange and its members individually to co-operate with the Washington authorities.

The result of the conference, as appears from the advice received from the Food Administration, is to fix the minimum price of hogs for November at $17.50 as the daily average for packer droves, and not less than $16.50 shall be paid for other than "throw outs."

The advice from the Food Administration came in a telegraphic communication transmitted by the Food Administration at the request of the conference, which was constituted of representatives of the Food Administration, the Live Stock Subcommittee of the Agricultural Advisory Board and special members of the swine industry.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lumpy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.

AMERICAN DYES.

The recent Chemical Show in New York filled the Grand Central Palace, and it was perhaps the greatest exhibit of the achievements of American brains ever collected under a single roof. The show demonstrated to the entire satisfaction of the scientific world, which found its way to the place, that the things Germany has held as a mortal cinch for half a century or longer, belonged to her no more—for Germany can choke on her own potash for all we care on this side of the waters. When it comes to the manufacture of dyes the Du Pont's have demonstrated that they have a newly established industry that will set us free forever from dependence upon German dyes.

The name Du Pont, and powder, are almost synonymous to the general public; but the Du Ponts have been making big inroads into American industry aside from munitions. It is mighty interesting to know that this tremendous enterprise is preparing to discount the reconstruction period by providing a way to utilize its great capital and the services of its 75,000 employees—65,000 of whom are engaged in war work—when the munitions of peace supplant the munitions of war.

It is only a step over the back fence from the bases from which most of the high explosives are obtained as by-products of the coking industry to the same sources from which are obtained the bases from which are manufactured the intermediates and finally the dyes so much needed to supply practically every other industry. And in the big show, the biggest end of the exhibit was of American dyes. It was conclusively demonstrated that the question "what can be produced" belongs entirely in the past tense; and it is far more interesting to learn the truth as to what is produced? The answer to this latter phase of the situation within the industry shows that as good dyes are being produced in sufficient quantities right now to meet all industrial demands, as are needed, and that they are made in America. The dye manufacturers have been having considerable trouble with textile manufacturers who have insisted on using dyes made of wool on cotton, and dyes intended for silk on wool. This sort of bungling has reflected considerably upon American dyes, and has been responsible for most of the criticism that has been so freely made. But the difficulty has been only temporary, and it has been practically remedied.

The great crowds that gathered to witness the victories of the American chemists had the satisfaction to behold the dye manufacturing processes in operation; and color for color, it was demonstrated that the home dyes exposed to sunlight and weather, are in every way equal to the foreign equivalent. It is an interesting coincidence that the same great firm of Du Pont that has shot our enemies full of holes in wartime has been the leader in perfecting on a big scale the dye-making industry, which is to continue to shoot disappointment into Germany long years after the struggles of battles are over. It has all along been claimed that Germany's dyestuff industry was to be a thing to bargain with for international commercial advantages, and it was to be an earnest that the world once more at peace must early resume business relations with her.

Further, it was a source of large income and a source of still larger prestige. The duplication of this industry in America must prove very disquieting to the people over the Rhine.

American chemists and American manufacturers are winning big battles for their country, and our industrial independence has become assured for all time.

Physicians and druggists are elated over the fact that they have at last found a genuine and dependable remedy for colds, sore throat, influenza and la grippe. For years they have depended chiefly upon the old style calomel, which is certainly fine, but unfortunately many people would not take it because of its nauseating and dangerous qualities.

Now that the pharmaceutical chemists have perfected a nauseless calomel, called "Calotabs" whose medicinal virtues are vastly improved, the doctors and druggists are claiming that Calotabs are the ideal remedy to abort a cold over night or short an attack of sore throat or la grippe. They are also finding it most effective as the first step in the treatment of pneumonia.

One Calotab on the tongue at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with your eating or your work and pleasure. The next morning your cold has vanished and your whole system is purified and refreshed. Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages; price thirty-five cents. Your druggist recommends and guarantees them by refunding the price if you are not delighted.

CHAIRMAN RHEA'S GOOD WORK.

For the campaign now drawing to a victorious close, great credit is due to State Campaign Chairman Thomas S. Rhea, former treasurer of Kentucky. He had been affiliated with the Beckham faction of the party, but was one of the first to espouse the cause of Gov. Stanley when he was nominated for Senator, and being made chairman of the committee charged with rolling up the biggest majority possible for him and the nominees for Congress and the judiciary, he went to work in the most intelligent manner and by his experience in organizing was enabled to build up an organization that will know no such word as defeat. He has labored every day and far into the night for the success of the ticket and when he realizes its accomplishments on the eve of November 5th, he will be the happiest man in Kentucky and the recipient of the gratitude of the Democracy of State and Nation. The party indeed chose wisely when Tom Rhea was named as chairman, as the results are sure to prove. Stamp under the rooster.

A HERO EVERY DAY.

Three times has Private Harry J. Swanson, of the United States Marines, faced almost certain death to carry messages to and from the advanced front lines as the Marines swept forward against the Germans near Vierzy, July 19. Now he was in a temporary shelter comparatively safe, for the moment, from the driving hail of machine gun bullets.

Scorning this safety Private Swanson leaped from his shelter and ran to where his battalion commander crouched, too busy shouting his commands to think of safety. A second more and Private Swanson was beside him.

"I'll dig you in sir," shouted the private above the roar of the shrapnel and the whine of the machine gun bullets. Exposed himself to the steel hail, he began his work. And not until the battalion commander was well entrenched did Private Swanson, of the Marines, return to his shelter. As a result of his gallantry, Private Swanson has been recommended to receive the Distinguished Service Cross. He is a son of Charles Swanson, 6620 South Pauline street, Chicago, Illinois.

CAMPAIGN CANARD

The statement circulated by Dr. Bruner and others that Governor Stanley stated in a speech at Cincinnati on March 16, 1918, that "Prohibitionists were worse tyrants than the Kaiser and bigger fools," is absolutely false and was immediately corrected by the paper which published it. Congressman Alfred A. Allen and other distinguished guests who were present have also contradicted it. This false statement is made at the close of the campaign for the purpose of prejudicing Governor Stanley in the eyes of the temperance people and to secure repudiation of Woodrow Wilson at the polls.

THOMAS S. RHEA,

TO KENTUCKY BOYS AND GIRLS

Every boy and girl in Kentucky is eager to help win this war. Here is a splendid chance to join with all the boys and girls in the United States in pulling for victory.

The United War Work Campaign to be held the week of November 11 is to raise money to carry on the work of seven organizations among our soldiers and sailors over there and over here. The seven are: The Young Men's Christian Association, the Young Women's Christian Association, the National Catholic War Council, the Jewish Welfare Board, the War Camp Community Service, the American Library Association, and the Salvation Army. They united at the earnest suggestion of President Wilson.

Every boy and every girl in Kentucky between the ages of 12 and 20 is asked to earn and give $5 to this great national fund of $170,500,000. The boys will be enrolled as "Victory Boys" and the girls as "Victory Girls."

To arouse interest in this great movement, boys and girls of Kentucky are invited to compete in an essay contest. The best Kentucky essay in each case will be forwarded to Chicago to compete with the best essays from the thirteen other States of the Control Department—Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas and Colorado.

The judges in Kentucky will be very prominent educators. The boy and the girl winning in the Central Department contest will receive $10 each. State winners will be announced early in the campaign. Department winners will be announced the last day of the campaign.

Get busy at once, boys and girls of Kentucky. Prepare your essay and be sure it contains only 500 words, or less. The subjects are, "The Work of Any One of the Seven Organizations," "How a Boy Can Earn and Give Five Dollars," "How a Girl Can Earn and Give Five Dollars," or any other topic bearing on the campaign. Then send it to the following address: "Victory Boys' Contest," or "Victory Girls' Contest," 643 S. Fourth St., Louisville, Ky., State Headquarters of the United War Work Campaign.

This contest is open to all. Public and parochial school pupils are urged to take part in it.

—Among the new cases of influenza developing here recently are E. T. Sheeler, Master Ennis Earl Insko, the family of Mr. Hamm, in Judyville and the family of Mr. Arthur Robertson, excepting himself.

—Howard Carr, aged twenty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Carr, of near this city, died at the Good Samaritan Hospital, in Lexington, following a protracted illness caused by an abscess on the brain. The body was prepared for burial and taken to Cynthia, Tuesday. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon, with services conducted at the grave in Battle Grove Cemetery by Revs. J. W. Gardner and J. D. Redd. Besides his parents he is survived by three sisters, Mrs. H. C. Hill and Misses Alline and Margaret Carr, and one brother.

—Wednesday was another Millersburg day at the Students' Army Training Corps, Camp Buell, Lexington. Two automobiles were loaded with supplies of food for the patients, and the Red Cross Chapter, of Lexington, acknowledged the assistance with thanks. The donors were: Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Rankin, Mrs. Charles Leer, Mrs. Riggs, Mrs. F. Ingels, Mrs. Clarke Leer, Mrs. Chas. Martin, Mrs. Jas. Carpenter, Mrs. W. P. Shanklin, Mrs. Lena Patterson and children, Mrs. W. M. Wright and daughter, Mrs. Jennie Madison, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jones, Mrs. Griffin, Mrs. Layson Pryor, Mrs. George Stoker, Mrs. Laura Letton, and Annie Conway, (colored.)

The influenza situation here remains very much the same. There have been no deaths, and only a few new cases reported. Our citizens are using every precaution to prevent spread of the disease. Not all the homes where it has developed have been placarded, as they should be for the protection of the public. Postmaster Cray has made a vigorous protest against the crowding of the post-office lobby at the opening of the evening mail. He desires to keep the office open for the accommodation of patrons, but for safety, has issued a rule that not more than three persons will be allowed in the lobby at one time. Unless this is complied with the Postoffice Department may be called on to take steps to enforce it.

MATRIMONIAL.

PROBLEMS OF RECONSTRUCTION

Senator Weeks, of Massachusetts, introduced the original "reconstruction" bill in the Senate. It was immediately taken up by a Republican caucus and endorsed. It provides for a joint committee of the two branches of Congress consisting of six members from each body, one-half of whom are to be Democrats and the other one-half of the committee to be Republicans. Senator Overman, of North Carolina, has followed with a resolution similar to the Weeks measure, except that it provides that the President shall name the members of a reconstruction commission, and that it shall be independent of Congress. The Overman bill is generally regarded as the "Administration measure." Other bills have been introduced by Senator Owen, of Oklahoma, and another by Meyer London, Socialist; and still another by Representative Madden, of Chicago. The Weeks resolution enumerates specifically the different subjects to be investigated and reported on. It specifies a number of problems affecting labor, capital and credit, public utilities, conditions resulting from the mobilization of our industrial and military war resources, problems affecting our foreign trade, the continuance of existing industries, and the establishment of new industries; problems relating to agriculture; problems affecting the adequate production and effective distribution of coal, gasoline and other fuels, problems relating to shipping, (including shipping yards), and especially in regard to the sale, continuance of ownership or leasing of both yards and ships, housing conditions, and condition of house construction by the Government during the war, where legislation is now on the statute books with reference to its repeal, extension or amendment. In addition to these topics, which are subdivided into many subjects, the resolution further provides that the committee of Congress shall have power to inquire into making recommendations with reference to "all matters necessarily arising during the change from the activities of war to the pursuit of peace."

In the Senate speeches it has been pointed out that every nation now engaged in the war, has been and is now getting ready for peace conditions. It seems that nearly three years ago conferences were held by the Allies, at which certain general principles were adopted in regard to trade conditions after the war, the relationship of one power to another, the relationship of the Allied nations to friendly countries, and neutral nations to the enemy governments. In the enemy countries the same sort of plan has been made to deal with conditions after the war. "We must, without delay, take such steps as may be necessary to provide for the innumerable new problems we must face the day peace is made," declared Senator Weeks, "because we do not need in the summer is no reason for not filling our bins for the coming winter," he added.

CINCINNATI HEALTH OFFICER PROTESTS AGAINST LATONIA RACING.

The Cincinnati Board of Health, Officer, has protested against the fall race meeting at Latonia, while the present influenza epidemic situation continues.

Doctor Peters telegraphed the Kentucky State Board of Health asking it to order the race meeting postponed until the situation in Cincinnati clears.

He said opening of the race track would spread the disease in Cincinnati and Kentucky. He pointed out that large crowds would fill cars between Cincinnati and the track. The Kenton County Council of Defense is assisting Cincinnati in attempting to postpone the meet, Dr. Peters said.

A MONUMENTAL WASTE.

(Louisville Times) In the annals of humanity there occurs the record of no greater waste of human resource than that of which Col. Theodore Roosevelt has been guilty. Possessed of splendid powers of mind, magnetism of the strongest, animal courage in such a degree as to be at once the admiration and envy of the crowd, Col. Roosevelt has yielded to the temptations of his clamorous ego to the point that his personality is worse than useless—it has become a drag upon the fortunes of the Nation.

While it is unlikely that Col. Roosevelt retains such a following as to make his actions vitally dangerous to our aims of war and peace, his continuous and presumptuous offerings of advice and rebuke to the President and the Government of the United States of America are a shame upon the land. He has devoted a large part of his time and the whole of his personal strength of late months to an effort at muddying the waters; and his statements of Friday—at concept pitch of envy and thwarted egotism—shows him up not as the patriot he so clamorously claims to be, but as a common scoundrel.

Had Col. Roosevelt devoted himself to the uses of patriotism from the entry of the United States into the war until this time, it would be impossible to calculate the good he could have accomplished. But he never has been able to put politics out of his mind; and instead of inspiring his followers with a yearning to be of service to the country, he has succeeded in tainting them with the discontent that has utterly spoiled his usefulness as a citizen. We have conserved much during the war, but this waste of man-power is irretrievable.
